

Services offered:

- Coordinate carrier services
- Review safety procedures and loss control manuals
- Review claims procedures and analyze loss data
- Perform loss control surveys
- Research regulatory guidelines (OSHA, DOT, etc.)
- Conduct on and offline safety seminars
- Share special topics and current items of concern via email and website
- Conduct site visits to provide audits and suggestions for improving safety and loss control
- Provide cost-containment certification help
- Monitor claims: advocacy and monitoring of open claims
- Provide customizable safety programs on topics such as - OSHA required written programs
- OSHA alliance contacts
 - Employer rights under OSHA
 - OSHA reporting requirements
 - How to handle specific situations, such as serious injury/fatality
 - What to do if inspector shows up on site, etc.
- Review loss runs to help you target and analyze your loss history and develop targeted improvement plans.
- Use OSHA history and records to help members proactively prevent losses and claims.
- Help investigating complex or costly claims
- Help develop a safety culture
 - Provide assistance in helping clients meet the safety expectations of major operators in the oil and gas business.
- Conduct drill rig audits and field safety inspections.
- Help establish return to work programs.

Advanced services coordinated with/for MSEA members (offered by third-party consultants, on a fee basis):

- Company needs assessments and custom designed safety programs
- OSHA Inspection support and OSHA Citation support
- Crisis management services/emergency preparedness plans
- Advanced level training and classes that provide 3rd party certification.
 - Advanced Defensive Driving
 - Ergonomic Evaluations and Related Job Training
 - Advanced Fall Protection Training
 - OSHA 10 Hr-Construction or General Industry Training
 - OSHA 30 Hr-Construction or General Industry Training
 - First Aid/CPR and AED Training
 - Contractor Orientation - (a 4 hour or 10 hour orientation is available)
 - Custom Designed New Employee Orientation
 - Fork Lift/Industrial Truck Operator Training
 - ATV Operator Training
 - Crane Operator NCCCO "National Commission For The Certification of Crane Operators"
 - Boom truck Operator Training
- The following require written programs and are employer/work site specific.
 - Control of Mouse Dropping and Other Biological Hazards
 - Fall Protection Program Development and Advanced Training
 - Developing an Ergonomics Assessment Program and Implementation
 - Writing Site Specific Emergency Plans and Severe Weather Response Plans.
 - Development Site Specific Safety Compliance Manuals
 - SPCC, Storm Water Pollution Prevention Programs and other Environmental Compliance Programs and Related Training.
- List of vendors that provide high quality services for the MSEA business, such as:
 - List of restoration services
 - List of wellness services
 - Industrial hygiene services-mold
 - Radioactive sources to testing